

Think Trees New Mexico Is Proud to Present a Virtual Conference

“Urban Forest Health:
From the Soil to the Sky”

February 17-19 9:00-12:00
MST

A Virtual Conference Event designed to bring new and pertinent information to advance your understanding and professionalism in the everyday work you perform to enhance your urban landscape.

Nationally and regional speakers, including Ed Gilman and Brian Kane, will share current insights regarding soils, herbicides, and pruning from “planting through maturity”, how to arrive at a consensus on irrigation practices, tree selection and nursery standards.

Visit the Think Trees NM website @ www.thinktreesnm.org to find The agenda topics along with presenters and registration information and follow the soon to be active WHOVA link.

Cost: $75.00

If you do not have a WHOVA account, you will need to create one.

Registration is limited so please register ASAP
